University of Belgrade
Project coordinator
dr Sima Avramović

- Project Coordination Board (PCB) – Steering Committee
- Representatives of all partners
- The major decision-making body of the project is the Project Coordination Board (PCB) – Steering Committee. Project management will be focused on how the project is progressing in terms of expenditure, use of resources, implementation of activities, delivery of results and the management of risks.

University of Belgrade
Project coordinator
dr Sima Avramović

National Project Coordination Team (NPCT)

- Representatives of Serbian Universities, Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development and National Council for Higher Education
- Local Managers (LM) – Coordinators and their local teams
- The PCB and National Project Coordination Team (NPCT) will make organizational and operational decisions. NPCT will coordinate day-to-day management with Local Managers (LM) - Coordinators. In that way it will be possible to achieve an appropriate balance between delegation of responsibilities and maintaining overall control of project staff performance. It is obvious that the management of the project will have a matrix organizational structure appropriate for effective and efficient management.
